New Jersey's Bloods Gam-

FIRST PRESIDENT WHO WILL LEAVE HOME SOIL

America's Greatest Pest Was Introduced by Careless Scientist
For Experiment Purpose.

Philadelphia, Nov. 5.—The sloop of war St. Louis has been handed over to a junk man and in a short time will be no more. The St. Louis at present lies in the Delaware river near this city. At the beginning of the rebellion she was comparatively old, but did good service on several expeditions and was guardship at the latter part of the war at various ports in the Atlantic and along the Gulf which were supposed to be menaced by the rebels. Even that time many decades of history looked down on her. In the time of John Quincy Adams she was launched at the Washington navy yard and in the ensuing forty or fifty years she sailed the seas of the world, fought pirates, explored strange waters and served in the Mexican and rebellion wars. At one time the St. Louis figured conspicuously in American and European diplomacy. In 1848 Martin Koszta, a Hungarian rebel who fled to the United States on the overthrow of Koszuth and his cause, took out his preliminary citizenship papers here, and then going to Turkey on business was seized by the Austrian consul at Smyrna and put on board an Austrian frigate. That was in 1853. Captain Duncan N. Ingraham, of the St. Louis, learned of the facts, notified the American consul general at Constantinople and was told to demand Koszta's release. Ingraham requested the Austrian captain to give him up, and on that request being refused, he declared that unless the prisoner was surrendered at 4 o'clock that afternoon he would take him by force. At the same time he got his vessel into position, cleared his decks and was about to open fire when the Austrian captain handed the prisoner over to the French consul, pleading an examination of the case. This was satisfactory and resulted in Koszta's release.

PLAYING EUCHRE FOR A HOSPITAL FUND
Paterson, N. J., Nov. 5.—A few feature in euchre parties was introduced here this afternoon when a number of ladies sat down at St. Joseph's hospital and played in aid of the funds of the institution. The ladies' auxiliary of the hospital, of which Mrs. Chas. G. Beattie is president, invited a large number of ladies from the city, and after play prizes were given for the best score the winnings going to the hospital fund. The party was a great success.

PRESIDENT WILL GO TO PANAMA IN STYLE
New York, Nov. 5.—The battleship Louisiana, on which the president will go to Panama, is waiting in readiness here for the trip. The cruiser Washington is in Hampton Roads and the Tennessee will leave League Island navy yard tonight to join the Washington. The latter two fast cruisers will act as convoy to the Louisiana during the trip, which will take about six days each way. The president's plan is to go on board the Louisiana at New York on November 8 and join the convoy in Hampton Roads. The two cruisers forming the convoy are the newest and finest in the navy. Neither has her full complement of men, but will be manned from the Minnesota and Brooklyn after arriving from Cuba.

IMPORTED PARASITES FOR THE DREAD GYPSY MOTH
Concord, N. H., Nov. 5.—Mr. Geo. E. Merrill, of Hampton Falls, a graduate of New Hampshire college and an expert from Massachusetts, have announced that the dreaded gypsy moth has made its appearance in Rockingham county and other places in the state. The gypsy moth is a far more dangerous insect than the brown tail and is capable of destroying a fine growth in a short time. The gypsy moth was brought into this country in 1879 by a Harvard professor for the purpose of experiments. He died before the experiments were completed and some of the moths escaped. Since then they have threatened the whole of New England and it is expected that the government will take measures to exterminate the dangerous pests. The parasites which keep the moth in subjection in European countries do not exist in America, but they are now being imported.

WOLVES ABOUND IN FORESTS OF MICHIGAN
Marquette, Mich., Nov. 5.—Northern Michigan hunters report the prevalence of wolves all over the country. They have increased in numbers wonderfully of late and are causing great destruction to deer in the woods. To the south of Flat Rock river along the Floodwood flat there are especially plentiful. Bears are unusually numerous in the upper peninsula woods this fall and a large number have lately been killed in Alger, Luce and Mackinac counties. In the district west of Sault Ste Marie very large numbers of them have been seen. The bears killed have been found to be in fine condition.

NEW COTTON FIELD WHICH ENGLAND HAS DISCOVERED
London, Nov. 5.—Sir Frederic Lugard, late high commissioner of Nigeria, in a pamphlet on that country issued today, states that for a thousand years the natives have grown cotton. The quality of the cotton is good and experts state it would be easy to produce enough to keep the Lancashire mills going without help from the United States. "The future of Nigeria," he states, "should be a

A BOSS WITH AN ICE COLD HEAD

PAT McCARREN, WHO OWNS BROOKLYN'S DEMOCRACY AND IS ONE OF THE MOST LUMI-NOUS FIGURES IN THE BIG NEW YORK CAMPAIGN.

By Jacob Waldeck.
Special Correspondence.

New York, Nov. 5.—One of the most luminous figures in the present exciting campaign is Patrick McCarrren, boss of the Brooklyn democracy. He shines through few words and large deeds.

His most recent contribution to the political excitement of the times was the bolting of Hearst, democratic and independence league candidate for governor. Even in that momentous action McCarrren didn't talk much. He applied to Hearst some of the hardest words in the language and openly and forcibly announced that the Brooklyn democratic organization was "agin" the editor candidate. What Hearst has said in his papers in reply is another story.

McCarrren's action caused great surprise. It was taking a regular party organization from a regular party candidate. Besides it seemed risky because of the strong Hearst following in Brooklyn. As a candidate for mayor a year ago Hearst and his fellow candidates on the municipal ownership ticket carried the borough by a big majority over their republican and democratic opponents.

When the bolt was announced other men went up in the air, but McCarrren kept his feet solidly on the ground. He is, as always, the most serene player in the game. Serenity is his specialty. He wouldn't recognize worry if somebody showed him a picture of it.

On the night of a red-hot election when things unexpectedly went wrong for their party the democratic leaders felt the need of a conference with McCarrren. Flying couriers finally found him peacefully sleeping in a hotel. Reading democratic defeat in the returns he had gone to bed. He went to headquarters, and in answer to the exclamations of the excited leaders he begged them to be calm.

"You know," he said, "that in a week you will feel all right over this thing. Then why not begin feeling all right now?"

His don't worry philosophy is carried to the betting ring of the race track, which is his chief diversion or business, or both. He long has owned bright one. It is a country capable of wonderful development and its commercial prospects are excellent."

SEAL SKINS ARE GOING OUT OF SIGHT IN COST
New York, Nov. 5.—A prominent furrier in this city estimates that owing to the yearly decline in the catch of seals for the past six years seal-skin garments this year will be 55 per cent. dearer than they were in 1901. In the later year 22,672 seals were taken in the Rookney Islands of St. Paul and St. George and this year when the season closed only 14,400.

NAVY NEEDS MORE MEN THAN ENLIST
Washington, Nov. 5.—Commander Wm. P. White, who is in charge of the recently established recruiting station in Cleveland, reports that he has not secured as many men during the past month as he had hoped. Commander White attributes the falling off in naval and military recruiting also to the better conditions of labor.

ENGLISH GIRLS WELL COMPETE FOR ASTOR CUP
London, Nov. 5.—If nothing untoward happens in the interim, a team of English ladies will go to America next year to compete for the international challenge cup presented by Mrs. John Jacob Astor. Miss May Sutton and Wylie C. Grant are here acting as ambassadors and they have been promised that an English team consisting probably of Mrs. Sperry, Mrs. Hilliard, Miss Douglas, Miss Pinkney and Miss Eastlake-Smith will go to America next season to compete for Mrs. Astor's trophy.

HINDOOS MIGRATING IN LARGE NUMBERS TO CANADA
London, Nov. 5.—In the course of a few weeks the number of 1,000 Hindoos will leave the Bengal presidency for British Columbia. The sikhs are no doubt attracted by reports of the scarcity of labor and high wages in British Columbia. The high commissioner in Bengal, however, believes that one winter in the northwest will be enough for them.

LONG ISLAND BLOODS RIDE FOR RACE CUPS
Great Neck, L. I., Nov. 5.—A large and fashionable crowd is assembled in the fields of the Polo club here to witness the riding of the polo club. The riders are owned by a recognized hunt club or polo club. There will be two steepchase and five flat races. Cups for the events are presented by Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt, A. Edgcombe Rendle, W. Gould Brokaw, the Messrs. Grace Cord Mayer, James E. Martin and the Lindens club of the club.

FAYWOOD HOT SPRINGS

Special Correspondence.
Faywood, Nov. 3.—The Faywood hot springs resort and ranch property belong now to T. C. McDermott, who recently acquired sole ownership by purchasing the interests of his partners. Mr. McDermott knows how to conduct a resort like the Faywood, and with Mrs. McDermott's aid, the guests are guaranteed the best kind of treatment while at the hotel.

Mrs. E. L. Carpenter and son, E. L. Carpenter, Jr., from Dawson, N. M., are spending some time at Faywood, taking the baths and drinking the mineral water.

F. J. Davidson, the Pinos Altos, N. M., general merchant, is spending a few weeks at Faywood hot springs, and is receiving very marked benefits.

a stable of running horses. He is one of the big betters in the game. Often he has from $1,000 to $10,000 at stake in a race. Win or lose he is calm as any man a thousand miles from the track. Not a trace of exultation in his looks or voice if he wins. No sign of disappointment if he loses.

McCarrren is a lawyer, but it is so long since he practiced that not many know of his professional standing. He has been a member of the state sen-

CANDIDATE MAYO AND HIS GOOD RECORD

Some Facts Regarding His Official Duties as a Commissioner of Santa Fe County.

From Santa Fe New Mexican.

A few blackmailers who always come to the front in political campaigns, especially if they control a printing press and can issue something that they are pleased to call a newspaper, have attacked the record of Joseph B. Mayo, who is a candidate on the regular republican ticket in Bernalillo county for commissioner, and who for many years was a valued citizen of Santa Fe county, while serving as commissioner of the county in 1891 and 1892, this in the matter of the refunding of certain Santa Fe county bonds in those years, that were bearing 6, 7 and 8 per cent interest into 5 per cent bonds under and by virtue of the statutes then in existence. The accused and delinquent interest on these bonds was also then and there refunded.

The history of the case is simple: Certain of these bonds were the issues of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railway, amounting to $150,000 in aid of the construction of the branch line of that road from Lamy to Santa Fe, and of $150,000 in aid of the construction of what was then called the Texas, Santa Fe and Northern railway, from Espanola to this city; these bonds had been in litigation; their legality and validity had been attacked in the courts, but had been sustained both in the first judicial district court and in the supreme court of New Mexico. Other bonds were then in existence bearing 8 and 7 per cent. The board of county commissioners then and there, of which Mr. Mayo was chairman, effected a compromise with the bond holders by which the bonds were refunded into new bonds bearing the same principal but only carrying five per cent interest. The action was open and above board, was had in broad daylight, was known to all taxpayers and property owners, to the railroad corporations in the county, the biggest taxpayers, and was in accordance with the provisions of the statutes and the judgments of the courts.

There was no kicking at the time; there were no objections by taxpayers or property owners; there was no opposition and then and there the decent citizens, taxpayers and property owners not only acquiesced in the proceedings but supported and approved the same. To the credit of Santa Fe, be it said there were not nearly as many blackmailers and scandal mongers then in this city and in the territory as there are today.

Much money in interest was saved by the transaction. There never was a charge of dishonesty or a breath of suspicion raised against the action of the board of county commissioners of Santa Fe county at that time.

Had the interest on these refunded bonds been regularly paid and not defaulted this county today would not be in the deplorable financial condition in these matters that confronts it. The action was taken for the best interests of the county and would have proved so had not, in later years, a short-sighted and unbusinesslike policy been adopted and the interest on these issues of bonds defaulted. Thereupon, these bond holders sued Santa Fe county to recover on delinquent coupons and interest on the same. They obtained judgment as in right and law they should have done.

It took the scandal mongers and blackmailers fourteen years to charge that Mr. Mayo had acted improperly and corruptly in the matter. They would not dare to do so now were these district attorneys who would do their duty and enforce the statutes of the territory in respect to criminal law.

Mr. Mayo's record in this county and wherever he is known and where- ever he has lived, in New Jersey, and since residing in Santa Fe county and in Albuquerque, is that of an honest, honorable business man, true to his word, absolutely careful to carry out every obligation of a citizen, of an official, and in any business obligation, that he may incur. He is a clean minded, sober, industrious and right thinking citizen. He is attacked now by the Albuquerque Fake Journal and a yellow dog sheet or two, because, forsooth, he dares to have the manhood to be a candidate on the regular republican ticket for Bernalillo county. This is the head and front of his offending.

As the New Mexican has already said the people's ticket in Bernalillo county is to be commissioned with an account of the support it receives from the Albuquerque Fake Journal and a yellow dog sheet or two in other places. There are some very good men on the ticket. It is a pity and a sorrow to find them in such dire straits, dishonest and dirty company as the Albuquerque Fake Journal and its ilk.

The situation in Bernalillo county is very much mixed. At this time there is no telling whether Mr. Mayo will be elected or will not be elected. He should be and that he will serve the best interest of the taxpayers and property owners and of the people generally of Bernalillo county, if successful, in the capacity of county commissioner, is a sure thing, fully proven by his clean and honorable record since he became a resident of New Mexico twenty years ago.

While serving as chairman of the board of county commissioners of Santa Fe county he did what was right. He did what was just. He did what was honest. He was threatened at the time of the refunding of the bonds named above, with all sorts of legal proceedings and legal punishments because he would not consent to the refunding of the bonds at the same rate of interest at which they were originally issued. He insisted that all the county bonds then and there in existence should be refunded at five per cent, and this was done with the exception of a small issue of a very early date, which issue is now paid off. He stood up manfully for the rights and interests of the property owners and taxpayers of Santa Fe county, of which he was one. For that he is now being abused, slandered by a corrupt gang and by a few yellow sheets in its pay. This is a sad commentary on political and newspaper conditions in New Mexico. A change for the better is imperative. The courts and the dis- trict attorneys should see to it. The libelers and the slanderers should be brought before the bar of justice and punished.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for full particulars. Address: J. C. HENRY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. THE OLD WOLF OF TAMMANY EMERGES

NOT ONLY BUTTS IN ON NEW YORK CAMPAIGN, BUT IS COM-ING BACK TO OLD STAMPING GROUND.

RICHARD D. CROCKER.

New York, Nov. 5.—Richard Crocker, self-deposed boss of Tammany hall, has leaped back into the glare of full publicity again. In New York politics he has "mixed in." From his secluded retreat in Ireland the grizzled old chief of the most famous spoils system in the world grows out a conspicuous rebuke to Cuas. Francis Murphy, whom he placed in the stewardship for giving Tammany's support to Hearst.

This came in a crisis of the campaign. On top of this Crocker is coming back to New York for what purpose one knows. Some think he will try to dethrone Murphy and secure the leadership for his Brooklyn lieutenant, Pat McCarrren. Some think that he is tired of his several years' seclusion in inactivity abroad and may wish again to wear the crown of Tammany and get into the old knock-down and drag-out, rough and tumble of metropolitan politics for the mere pleasure of it.

Whatever his object, if it has to do with politics, he will have a fight on his hands that may send him scurrying back. The young wolves of Tammany don't think much of the teeth of the old wolf. They are already charging that Crocker is actuated by the sentiment of a miser, not a party man in his opposition to Hearst. They charge that he fears the election of Hearst would depreciate his local stock investments. The public has no admiration for Crocker anyhow, but, as usual, that doesn't seem to be taken into consideration one way or the other.
